Adverse Ruling as to Sergt. Mealey Because Record Shows He Resigned -Other Cases to Be Heard.

Judge Klene in the Circuit Court today set aside the suspensions of Police Captains William Hess, and John N. Pickel and Sergt. Sidney H. Phillips. In his opinion he said the Poard of Police Commissioners acted in violation of the statutes when it suspended these officers Oct. 18 without filing charges against them of acquainting them with the reasons for the suspensions.

John M. Atkinson, attorney for the poliec officers, said the decision automatically reinstated them and they had a right to resume their positions and hold them until formal charges should be preferred.

Atkinson advises Hess, Pickel and Phillips to go to Acting Chief O'Brien at once and report for duty. They left the court house to do this.

The two Captains and the Sergeants appeared at police headquarters at 11:30 a. m. and told Acting Chief O'Brien of the Court's order, saying they were ready to report for duty. O'Brien told them he had not been officially advised of the court order and had no authority to reinstate them except on orders from the board. He advised them to go to their homes and said he would notify them of their reinstatement when authorized to do so.

Fortify Yourself Against Epidemics

Disease germs have a hard job when they tackle a sound body.

Epidemics of Influenza, Grippe, etc. pass by people who keep themselves in good condition. Exercise, fresh air, sleep and wholesome food are the best promoters of good health.

Sound bodies rarely suffer from colds, but bodies ravaged by colds are easy prey for all manner of serious diseases and the first to be attacked when there is an epidemic.

Monday, Oct. 21st. It is directed to the attention of all distributors of Vick's VapoRub, both wholesale and retail. In an emergency such as the present epidemic—our duty—and your duty—is to distribute VapoRub in the quickest possible manner to those sections stricken by Influenza. We, therefore, call your careful attention to the following:

DANGER OF SHORTAGE IF SUPPLY IS NOT CONSERVED.

On October 1st we had on hand, at our factory and in twenty warehouses scattered over the country sufficient VapoRub to last us, we thought, until January 1st, allowing for a 50% increase over last year's sales, and not counting our daily output. This big excess stock had been accumulated during the summer worths.

Buy in as small quantities as possible. If you have any quantity orders, given the jobber's salesmen on don't bother about them—no need to write us—it is absolutely impossible to fill these of orders at this time. If the jobbers in your territory are out of Vick's VapoRub, we will ship you by Parcel Post, prepaid, quantities not more than three (3) dozen 30c size in any one order. Naturally, we can't open accounts at this time, so your check or money order for this amount must accompany order. Don't write us stating to ship thru your jobber, as we then have to wait until we write this jobber and get his O. K. If you wish the goods to come thru your jobber, as left of the statute."

The Court said it was also urged that on the grounds of public policy the write of the writ requiring the board to show cause schould not have been issued, at it was against public policy to require the filling of charges "in cases like the present." freight and express are both congested nowadays, and it may be some time before this supply reaches the jobbers. In the meantime, therefore, it is necessary that we distribute, as widely as possible the stock that we are manufacturing daily, together with that now on the jobbers' and retailers' shelves, in order that it may get to the Influenza districts quickly. Our normal output is about 4000 dozen per day. We are putting on an aight shift, but it will be a little while before that is producing.

From Jack Dempsey to J. Willard.

G IGANTIC JESS, the 37-year-old world's championship edifice, was rocked to his foundations Tuesday by direct "hits" from the heavy artillery of one Jack Kearns, the quick-firing, nonstop, press representative of that dreaded ring troglodyte, William Harrison ("Jack") Dempsey. handshaker and a "yes" man. John Heydler does all the work -why not give him the salary, too! From his emplacement in a Philadelphia canteen. Kearns shelled the champion in far off Wichita Falls in a manner that left nothing to be said by Willard, save: "I accept" or Chalk Up Willie!

Kearn's hot shot followed a query as to whether he would permit his protege to fight or box Willard at the United War Work Benefit. Kearns spake about as follows:

"Dempsey will box Willard from one round to 100. He will allow the world's champion side-stepper to name his own referee and make all arrangements. He will give all arrangements. He will give all of his share to the fund. If Willard wants to FIGHT, Dempsey will fight; if he wants to BOX an exhibition, Jack will agree to that also. If Willard has any fear of being deprived of his title I will post $10,000 with the officials to guarantee that Dempsey will not HURT HIM. "Further, while binding him-

He always managed to make more than expenses, mainly through his efforts in the middle distance runs, pole vault and jumps. He admits that he was not much in the sprints, as to take his own word for it, "he had to be exceptionally good to do 100 in 16 3-5 seconds." He was a little too light for the weights, as at the time he weighed only 175 pounds. However, he generally managed to get back his entry fee.

For a long time, Lieut, McDonald held the professional pole vaulting record with 12 feet, while he also had a high jump mark of 73% inches. He was able to throw the 16-pound shot 43 feet 11 inches, while he did 159 feet with the 16-pound hammer. Five years ago he threw the 12-pound hammer 192 feet. Only last sea-son he pole vaulted 11 feet. In 1897 at Boston, Lieut, McDonald threw the shot 35 feet without a run, and

NOTICE TO VOTERS

The following Resolution was passed by the Board of Election Commissioners:

WHEREAS, it is a matter of public and common knowledge that thousands of our registered and qualified voters are now in the Army and Navy of the United States, and in warwork outside of the City of St. Louis, who will be unable to be present on Election Day to

WHEREAS, it is a fact, of which the judges and clerks of election should take cognizance that large numbers of the names of these absentees are available for the purpose of illegal and fraudulent voting which greatly endangers the prospect of an honest election, and

WHEREAS, it is the duty of all good citizens to aid the Government in rounding up slackers and compelling all persons in the Draft Age to register in the Draft, and

WHEREAS, it is the legal duty of the election judges to exercise the greatest vigilance in preventing fraudulent voting on election day in order that the will of a majority of the voters of the city may not be thwarted by corrupt voting,

IT IS RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF ELECTION COMMISSIONERS that in view of the large number of absent registered and qualified voters, that the judges of election should require each voter within the Draft Age, as a means of identification, to produce to them evidence that he is registered in the draft with his war board, before being permitted to vote. If the voter was in the drafts of June 5, 1917, June 5, 1918, or August 24, 1918, he ought to be required, as a means of identification, to produce his final classification card. If the voter was in the last draft of September 12, 1918, he should be required to produce his registration card showing that he is registered with his war board.

Where, however, the judges of election are satisfied of the identity of the registered voter in the draft age, and who is unable to produce to the judges his classification or registration card, the judges should waive this requirement as to identification and permit the voter to vote if otherwise qualified.

POLITICS AND THE CIRCUIT BENCH.

Seven Circuit Judges will be voted for Tuesday. Two to fill vacancies will serve only from the date of their election until Jan. 1 and are relatively not important so far as the make-up of the court is concerned. One will fill a vacancy for four years and four will serve the full term-six years.

Accordingly, if all the Democratic nominees are defeated the circuit bench will be solidly Republican for two years and even admitting that some Democratic nominees will be chosen in 1920, will continue for two years more with a very large preponderance of Republicans among its 14 members. A court having Judges of both parties will command public confidence in greater degree than a court of one party. Many of the cases coming before the bench involve issues growing out of elections. To bring minds of varying view to the adjudication of these cases is an advantage.

The four democratic nominees for the full term-Franklin Miller, Charles B. Williams, Thomas Bond and Richard A. Jones-are indorsed in their personal and professional qualifications by the Democratic members of the bar. Two Republican nominees for the full term-Granville Hogan and Frank Landwehrwere refused the indorsement of the Republican mem-

To say that the two remaining Republican nominees for the full term have a bar indorsement does not mean exactly the same thing as to say that the four Democratic nominees have such an indorsement. The Democratic nominees were picked by the bar from all the Democratic material in the Bar Association, the selections filing thereafter and being nominated. The two indorsed Republican nominees were not picked from the city sanitarium. Some of them are all the Republican material in the bar, but from the war victims—mothers whose minds became unbalanced because of depicted -a restricted choice.

Voters desiring to sustain the important principle for our wounded soldiers. There are nany hotels and apartment houses, some of which are vacant, in desirable parts of the city, which could be converted into hospitals eminently suited their strength, distributed among the four Democratic for our soldiers. The insane need the nominees, will be dissipated. Concerted action for uniting support on the same two Democrats being impracticable at this late date, we earnestly advise voters of all parties to mark their ballots for the entire Democratic long-term Circuit Court ticket. They can gain their desire in no other way. This advice, which we sness and remove them to quarters strongly emphasize, applies only to the ticket for the four full-term places,

The American people as a whole are under the deepest obligations to Fresident Wilson for the man-ner in which he has conducted both the military and the civil affairs of the Government during the past four years. He has given the United States a posi-tion in human affairs which no other nation has ever possessed or now possesses. Patriotic voters will do well to keep this indisputable fact in mind and to avoid doing what President Wilson thinks would diminish his influence at home and abroad. PANATELA. YES, LUELLA.
Things are going

Fine and dandy Day by day The hosts of freedom Seem to gain A little ground. All we need From this is patience Keeping stanchly On our toes. Till the Kaiser Sees his finish And the opposition Blows.

After all. My little girlie. Right is mighty Hard to beat: All it needs Is time to rally Upon its feet. For a little. And may think To have it But it isn't But a little Till it kicks him On the chin.

Many warriors Have fancied That the thing Is all a joke, And have sought To clap the plane In the military yoke. What has happened When they tried it Has been always And is still Pretty much About what follows In the case Of Kaiser Bill.

As we understand The matter, Followed to its Certain ends. Right, though unprepared And feeble. Has behind it Lots of friends. Once they see It is in trouble Lo, they rally To its side, And the Subsequent proceedings Cost the conqueror His hide.

That is all. My little girlie What the Kaiser Has in store Is precisely What has happened Very many First the victory Is easy And the way Of right is rough. Then the good folk Get together. And the tyrant Yells "Enough!"

The Kaiser: How many people did Ghenghis Kahn kill one way and another?

OUR OWN WAR REVIEW.

T is impossible for anyone who doesn't live in the newspaper to realize how nice it is not to have the Germans trying to dominate the place. It is, indeed, an epitome of that world which the Germans attempted to con-quer; and no doubt, when the war is over, something of this happiness will be felt by men everywhere for having escaped the same thing. The Germans are very meek now. They live back where the want ads are so thick that following anyone would be like following a bear in a canebrake, and nobody ever enjoyed sanctuary more than they do. Their explanations of how differently their country is governed now are almost laughable. They send somebody forward every day to assure us that Germany has be the nicest little democracy anybody ever heard tell of, and they appear to be heartbroken when it isn't swallowed hook, bait and sinker. Socrates. who has made something of a study of the note business, says the Germans are in a fair way to go even further toward radicalism than Russia went. He, says Germany, despite militarism. e the world's greatest bothed of cialism and kindred theories of life, and warns us that we must not be greatly surprised to see the Germans wind up as some sort of community such as Upton Sinclair has always tried to have. Socrates says it is this impulse in the Germans which led autocracy to go to the lengths it went. The Germans are no people for middle ground. Either they must be ruled with an irox hand, or they will make of Berlin another Milwaukee and of Essen another Patterson, N. J.

Meanwhile, peace negotiations have passed out of the hands of the President, and they are now with that allied conference in which our own Col. House sits as a tower of wisdom. Mr. Antwine says the spectacle this conference sitting on the front page is much the best assurance of eace we have had yet. He says the Germans will be told from that quarter what they must do, and have no choice in the matter left they will do it. He understands the military situation in Germany to be much worse than most of us think. The Kalser's army is beaten, and it cannot hold out much longer without blowing up. Antwine says the spectacle of the Kaiser, Emperor Charles and the Sultan of Turkey all standing in line for peace, and each of them trying to get peace first, is the most amusing the war has afforded. He says if one has eyer seen a lot of women trying to buy theater seats at the same time one can imagine this pretty well. The Kaiser is not quite so frank as the other two admitting his need, but let one of them shove a little and he fights like a wildcat. He was first at the wicket, and until he gets what he wants he is not going to be possible for anybody else to get anything. This is hard on Emperor Karl and the Sultan, who try to pull him away and then attempt to dive between the imperial legs. Mr. Antwine watched them until he had a stitch in his side.

Otherwise the war is not very thrilling. The Italians are putting the Austrians back in the want ads, which affords some divertisement. More next week-maybe, and Temples. A headache remedy without the dangers of "headache medicine." Relieves headache and that miserable feeling from colds or congestion. And it acts at once! Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Used only externally, and in no way can it affect stomach and heart, as some internal medicines do.

Excellent for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgis, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, all pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chiblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).
